LOCAL FRATERNITY DONATES FANS TO SENIOR SERVICES

Kappa Alpha Psi alumni chapter provides assistance by preparing seniors for hot weather

Jonesboro, GA- Clayton County Senior Services was recently presented with fans from SJAC Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. The Stockbridge-Jonesboro based organization has become a major supporter of Clayton County Senior Services over the years in helping to provide assistance to area seniors. In previous years not only has the chapter donated fans but they have also donated electric heaters to the seniors in the county.

Members of the fraternity delivered their donation of fans to the Senior Services Aging office located at 877 Battle Creek Road in Jonesboro. The gentlemen were greeted by Natasha Lee, a Case Manager within the Aging division, who is often contacted by seniors in the community requesting assistance. The Senior Services Aging division also oversees various programs for Clayton County seniors ranging from Meals On Wheels to In-Home Care services.

The Stockbridge-Jonesboro alumni chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity is active throughout the Southern Crescent community. Other fraternity community investment programs include CPR training classes, voter registration drives, men's health forums and Adopt-A- Highway Clean Up program. The fraternity, with over 150,000 members world-wide, is divided globally into twelve provinces of which the Stockbridge-Jonesboro Alumni Chapter is located within the Southeastern Province.

Clayton County seniors can pick-up fans at the Senior Services Aging Office located at 877 Battle Creek Road, Jonesboro with proof of county residency. For additional information call 770-603-4050.
