

Clayton County
Senior Services Department changing the face of aging

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

J Charley Griswell Senior Center Celebrates 7th Annual Mardi Gras Celebration

It started in the year 2009 as the brainchild of Linda McKenzie (a New Orleans native), current Center Manager of the J Charley Griswell Senior Center located inside Clayton International Park in Jonesboro. Floats will be decorated by center staff and beads thrown to an anticipated crowd of about 100 seniors inside the center's Dining Hall. After the parade of floats, the traditional 2nd Line Dance is performed by staff and members.

The event is scheduled to start at two o'clock in the afternoon on Friday, March 4th at the center and continue until around four o'clock. Light refreshments will be served.

Come in a costume or as yourself and enjoy the excitement of Mardi Gras at the Griswell Senior Center! Participants must be 55 or older to register.

###

Temporary Contact: Tori Strawter-Tanks, Director of Senior Services, 404-569-6052

Tori.strawtertanks@co.clayton.ga.us