Commissioner Sonna Singleton Gregory Sponsors “A Conversation with My Brother II” Panel Discussion Along with Alpha Phi Alpha, Inc. Pi Gamma Lambda Chapter

Jonesboro, Georgia – On Saturday, March 12, 2016, Clayton County District 1 Commissioner, Sonna Singleton Gregory along with Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Pi Gamma Lambda Chapter will host a panel discussion event titled, “A Conversation with My Brother II”. The event will be held at the Carl Rhodenizer Recreation Center located at 3499 Rex Road in Rex, Georgia from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm. For a second year, it is the goal to provide an opportunity for young males in and around the Clayton County area to hear from men who dedicate much of their time supporting the advancement and progression of young males in Clayton County and in America. The panel will include influential voices of African American men in Clayton County led by special guest panelist, 2013 Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient, Dr. C.T. Vivian. The event will also feature vendors who provide programs that cater to young males. “A Conversation with My Brother II” is expected to be powerful, open, honest, and relevant to the lives that young people are experiencing.

About Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Pi Gamma Lambda Chapter

Chapter President Janard (Jay) Peychaud states, “*The Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Pi Gamma Lambda Chapter are honored to co-host, “A Conversation with my Brother II” with Clayton County Vice-Chair, Sonna Singleton Gregory.
